Accident at the Belmont.

John Leonard, who resides at 2804 Main Street, while at work at the Belmont mill yesterday morning met with a serious accident, which will disable him from work for several weeks. One of the buggies ran over his right foot crushing it terribly. Dr. L. S. Biggs was summoned and properly dressed the wound.

An Unfortunate Accident.

While Thomas Hughes was loading brick on Fortieth Street, yesterday his horse became frightened at the cars and ran off. He was struck in the back by the wagon tongue, knocked down and run over. The wheels passed over his left leg and ankle. He was considerably bruised but no bones were broken. He will be laid up for two or three weeks.

Will Enter Saturday.

Collins, the Huntington train robber, who was tried and convicted there within two weeks after the attempted holding up of a Chesapeake & Ohio train, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for life, accompanied by Sheriff Kyle and deputies, will leave Huntington tomorrow morning for Moundsville. Collins will therefore commence his sentence Saturday evening.

The Sheriff Camed.

Yesterday Sheriff Steenrod was called on at his office by a deputation of ladies and before he had time to guess what it all meant, Prosecuting Attorney Howard came in, and in a neat address presented him with a splendid ebony cane, gold-headed, and suitably inscribed, on behalf of Steenrod division, No. 105, Ladies Auxiliary branch of the Order of Locomotive Engineers, which the ladies represented. Nobody was ever more surprised than the sheriff, but he managed to express his thanks very gracefully and feelingly.

WHO WAS DALLISON?

A Wheeling Man's Touching Gratitude Makes a Good Story.
The following is a special telegram from Greensburg, Pa.:

M. Crisinger, a young farmer living near this city, is better off by $10,000 than he was a week ago. Three months ago Crisinger visited Pittsburgh, and while walking down Fifth Avenue he was accosted by an old man, a stranger, who introduced himself as David Dallison, of Wheeling, W. Va. The old man was in trouble. He told Crisinger he had lost his pocketbook containing a sum of money and a ticket to Wheeling. He said he was afraid of getting into more trouble by asking the wrong man for assistance in such an emergency, and there were good reasons why he didn't want to make an appeal to public sources for assistance, winding up by asking Crisinger to help him out of the predicament.

The young man was not so gullible as to have no doubt about the genuineness of the case, but he says there was something in the old man's manner that pleased in his favor. He got a fairly good supper for Dallison and then bought a Wheeling ticket and then saw the old fellow safely on his train. As they separated Dallison asked Crisinger's address, entering it in a pocket memorandum book, and saying that he would return the money to Crisinger as soon as he got home. The latter doubted it at the time, and his doubts were strengthened as day followed day while he waited for the price of the ticket. That particular amount of money never came, but last Monday in the mail he received a letter from the city was a letter from a Wheeling attorney telling Crisinger that old man Dallison was dead and that his will was found with a codicil bequeathing $10,000 to the young man in recognition of his kindness to a stranger in a strange city.

New Year's Reception.

For the eighth time the Young Men's Christian Association will give a New Year's reception to the young men of the city on next Monday afternoon and evening. As heretofore, the building will be appropriately decorated, and ladies will assist the young men to receive and entertain callers. From 4 to 8 o'clock Mayor's orchestra will furnish music, ladies will serve refreshments in the lecture room, a gymnastic exhibition will be given in the gymnasium and an art exhibit will be given in the reading room. From 8 to 10 o'clock an entertainment will be given. Rev. Dr. Swope will give a New Year's address which will be followed by vocal and instrumental music and humorous and dramatic recitals. A cordial invitation is extended by the association to all young men to call some time during the afternoon or evening.

CURE FOR CROUP.—Use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil according to directions. It is the best remedy for all sudden attacks of colds, pain and inflammation, and injuries.

ONLY two more days to save discount on your water bills. Time expires Saturday, the last day of the year.

Only Three Days More and the great Sheriff Sale of men's and boy's clothing will end. Remember, everything goes without reserve at 47c on the dollar.
